

Value Management Governance

Rajesh Bhatia, CSC

Professional Strategies Track – Session S24

Abstract:

- Utilization of benefits realization, value management and full-cycle governance techniques to improve effectiveness of IT investment governance and realize higher benefits from the investments.
- Reasons for adoption and how their use will enable better management of programs and projects from a solution development and delivery perspective, offering for a client as part of IS management proposals, higher customer satisfaction, and enable organization to be better positioned against its competitors.
- How to introduce and sell the idea to executives of your company.
- Techniques include value/business cases, results chain modeling, four “ares”, portfolio and program management, stage gates and management reviews, org structure including VMO/PMO and investment decision board, accountability, measurements, and change management.

Target Audience:

- Skill level: Advanced
- Occupation: Strategy & Planning / Governance / Program Management
- Occupational Experience: Manager / director / VP / CxO

COBIT Objectives:

- PO1 – Define a Strategic IT Plan
  - PO1.1 – IT Value Management
  - PO1.2 – Business-IT Alignment
  - PO1.3 – Assessment of Current Capability and Performance
  - PO1.4 – IT Strategic Plan
  - PO1.5 – IT Tactical Plans
  - PO1.6 – IT Portfolio Management
- PO5 – Manage the IT Investment
  - PO5.1 – Financial Management Framework
  - PO5.2 – Prioritization within IT Budget
  - PO5.3 – IT Budgeting
  - PO5.4 – Cost Management
  - PO5.5 – Benefits Management
- PO9 – Assess and Manage IT Risks
  - PO9.4 – Risk Assessment
- PO10 – Manage Projects
  - PO10.1 – Programme Management Framework
  - PO10.2 – Project Management Framework
  - PO10.3 – Project Management Approach
  - PO10.6 – Project Phase Initiation
  - PO10.9 – Project Risk Management
  - PO10.13 – Project Performance Measurement, Reporting and Monitoring
- ME4 – Provide IT Governance
  - ME4.1 – Establishment of an IT Governance Framework
  - ME4.2 – Strategic Alignment
  - ME4.3 – Value Delivery
  - ME4.4 – Resource Management
  - ME4.5 – Risk Management
  - ME4.6 – Performance Measurement

Speaker Bio:

Rajesh Bhatia has 13+ yrs total experience in IT Governance, strategy & planning, process performance management, line management, managing operations & projects in Fortune 500 firms.

He has MS and MBA degrees, certifications including ISACA's CGEIT, PMI PMP, ITIL v2/v3 Foundation, CobiT v4.1 Foundation, Toastmasters' Advanced Communicator Bronze, and is a graduate of CSC's Management Development Program.

Currently, he is employed as a Business Process Re-engineering Manager with CSC and is involved in working on a major business transformation program to re-engineer, deploy and institutionalize management systems (strategies, people, processes, tools, & measures) in CSC business units globally to realize quality excellence, eliminate redundancy, lower costs, increase business benefits and obtain higher value from investments.